The Batemans—special neighbors

by John Carson

Ralph and Ginnie Bateman

I became acquainted with Ralph Bateman and his son, Jay, while enjoying the rehearsals of the Rose City Timberliners Barbershop Chorus at Wilshire United Methodist Church. When I visited with them, I learned that Ralph and his family lived just around the block from me. Ralph and his wife Ginnie are both retired. Ralph worked as an air traffic controller at the Portland airport for 37 years. His career spanned the early Boeings 247's, the later mammoth 747's, the arrival of Air Force One to Portland and the well-publicized hijacking by DB Cooper in 1971. (See Cooper story p. 4). Ginnie worked as a medical technologist and real estate agent before retiring.

Originally from Utah, Ralph moved to California when he was 19 and worked for the Lockheed Corporation. Later he

Leaf and Bean Café Celebrates 10 Years

by David Whitaker

Sara Lamadrid

Picture this, it's a beautiful spring day and you have spent most of it at work, stuffed into a corner under fluorescent lights between cube walls. Finally, you make the break and fling yourself into the glorious afternoon sunshine. All you want to do is play and draw in the sweet scents of an Oregon spring evening. The last thing on your mind is trudging home to make dinner. Never fear, Sara of Leaf and Bean is here and her delicious offerings are just what you need!

Sara Lamadrid, owner of the Leaf and Bean Café at NE Fremont and 50th, has been serving delicious sandwiches, soups, salads and affordable dinners for 10 years. She is one of the pioneers of the Fremont business scene. Among the popular items on her menu are the Paso Doble, a hot sandwich combining shredded chicken breast, a dried fruit and green olive chutney, ham, marinated red onion and Dijon-tomato mustard, and the Mediterranean chicken sandwich which has poached

Board Elections ~ Tax Assistance ~ Crime Prevention
Bethany Lutheran Church, NE 37th & Skidmore
All Beaumont Wilshire residents welcome!

Like vampires, the board of directors of the Beaumont Wilshire Neighborhood Association is always looking for fresh blood. Our April General Meeting will provide us with just such an opportunity—as we hold our annual board elections.

In even numbered years (like 2004) we will elect a President and a Treasurer to our 17-person board. There will also be six open positions for members at large. All elected terms will last for two years and will require attending no more than one meeting a month.

We invite you to join us as we proactively work together to enhance the livability of our neighborhood and establish and maintain open lines of communication between our neighbors and the agencies, officials and institutions we rely on. The Beaumont Wilshire neighborhood

Thinking Ahead

by Patrick Sweeney
BWNA President

I was in Washington, DC two weeks ago when my wife called me to say the first daffodil had bloomed. Two days later it was 4 daffodils. All winter we have been looking forward to see the results of planting 100 bulbs last October. Planting bulbs in the fall is one of the best ways to get ready for the arrival of spring.

I don't know what makes me happier—the smug contentment that I thought of something this good so long ago or the pure sight of those first yellow blooms. I guess it is a combination of both—thinking ahead and then enjoying the moment. The flowers blooming around the neighborhood symbolize that thinking ahead is a trait we all share. Occasionally, however, we could use a few reminders. Here are some things to keep in mind as you get ready for spring activities in the neighborhood:

- When you grab the leash remember to bring a plastic bag to pick up after your dog. Your neighbors will appreciate the consideration as they tip toe through their tulips.
- Coveting the greener grass on the other side of the fence? Be mindful when using fertilizers and weed control on your own lawn. Fertilizers and pesticides can run off in rain events and be harmful to aquatic life in rivers and streams.
- If the warm weather inspires a spring clean up, call Metro Recycling Information at 503-234-3000 or check out www.metro-region.org/recycling. Your may be surprised at what you can recycle and also find a safe place for old cans of paint and chemicals.
- And as for that dusty bicycle, if you have been waiting for the sunny day to go for a spin, please be aware of cars on the road, especially at unmarked intersections. Drivers should also take notice, as there will soon be more bicyclists sharing the road with you.

Artspace Update

By Helen Koba

WWW.BWNA.ORG/ARTSPACE.HTML

ARTSPACE, the online art gallery of artists living or working in BW, has added another Moonbeam to its collection:

"Suzanne"
Mixed media with glass by Fritze

"Textured Bowl"
Fused glass by Kathan

Jenelle Kathan / Moonbeam Glassworks, joins Judee Moonbeam, a fiber artist who was featured in the Dec/Jan 04 issue. You can view Janelle's fused glass panes, plates, coasters and other items on artspace.

Adrienne Fritze has new sculptures in her exhibit. Also, her installation, "Razor Wire Phoenixes: Through Prison Walls" opens April 3rd at the Urban Grind Coffeehouse 2214 NE Oregon St. The theme of the month long exhibition is 'imprisonment and freedom' with art-works by women inmates from the Coffee Creek Correctional Facility as part of the larger installation by Adrienne. Children of current and former inmates of the facility will display work in the Children's area of Urban Grind. There will be a public forum discussion on April 24th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

is already a great place to live, work and play—and the unstated goal of the BWNA is to keep making it even better.

If you would like to be nominated for a board position, but are shy about raising your hand, please feel free to email me at vicepresident@bwna.org and I'll make sure to add you to our slate of candidates.

Our meeting will convene in the basement of Bethany Lutheran Church (at NE 37th and Skidmore) on Monday, April 12th at 7:30 PM. We have a fairly light agenda and a fast-talking President, so we should be out of there by 8:30.

Dave Austin, the new Crime Prevention Specialist at Central Northeast Neighbors, will be a guest speaker. He has been assigned the responsibilities of providing public education, problem solving and resource sharing in enhancing the efforts we all share towards creating safer and more livable neighborhoods. We look forward to meeting him and sharing our concerns and ideas with him.

Also, for extreme procrastinators, we will have employees of Multnomah County's Finance Department on hand. They will be available to answer questions, provide forms and improve our understanding of the new county tax, which is due on April 15th for the 2003 tax year.

Hope to see you there!

The Batemans

obtained a pilot's license and became an air traffic controller. He did similar work when he was in the Navy for three years. He moved to Portland in 1942 where he met Virginia at the Old Portland Ice Rink. Ginnie, as she is called, learned to figure skate when she was growing up in North Dakota. They were soon married and settled in Beaumont Wilshire, where they raised son, Jay, and two daughters, Jean and Julie. Jean majored in music, Julie became a drama teacher at Wilson High School and Jay studied electronics at Benson High School.

Over the years, the Batemans have enjoyed special family traditions and get-togethers. Every year for the past 52 years, the whole family rents a cottage at Hood Canal, Washington, so they can vacation together. I enjoyed becoming acquainted with Ralph and his family and when I visited his home, I discovered that Ralph is a talented wood carver and has a splendid collection of exquisite birds, which he carved by hand. Family and hobbies keep life interesting for Ralph in his retirement years.

Ralph's works can now be viewed on Beaumont Artspace. To see Ralph's carved figures, including ducks, fish and birds, click on 'artspace' at www.bwna.org.

DB Cooper

Unsolved Hijacking

The only unsolved hijacking in US history involved DB Cooper, who parachuted from a plane near Ariel Washington with $200,000 tied to his waist. Some of the money was found years later at Tena Bar on the Columbia River, but Cooper was never seen again.

SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER

On November 24, 1971 a man in his 40's checked in for the Portland to Seattle flight on a NW Orient Airlines Boeing 727. He gave the name Dan Cooper (hours later a reported mistakenly identified him as "DB Cooper" which stuck).

During the short flight, Cooper told a flight attendant he had a bomb. He opened his briefcase to show what may have been just that to a different flight attendant.

When the plane landed in Seattle, Cooper released the passengers. In return, he was given four parachutes and $200,000 in $20 bills.

Cooper then ordered the pilot to fly toward Mexico at an altitude no higher than 10,000 feet. Once airborne, a flight attendant observed Cooper tying the bags of money to his waist. He strapped one parachute to his chest the other to his back.

Several minutes later the pilots noted a cockpit light indicating that Cooper had opened the plane's rear door, extended the stairway (possible because the plane was not pressurized at low altitude), and vanished into the freezing rain.

Most believe he landed near Ariel in the forest of the Washougal River watershed. An indictment against Cooper is still on file in Portland waiting to be unsealed should he be found.

Beaumont Village Walking Maps: Pick one up!

Banners to fly over Beaumont Village

By Brandon Wooters
President, Beaumont Business Association

The Beaumont Business Association (BBA) has been working both to improve the look of Fremont and encourage more people to use local businesses. We want to serve you—please let us know how we can help.

I hope by now you have seen the Beaumont Village Walking Maps. These have been an outstanding success. If you haven't seen them, stop by one of the local businesses and pick one up. They are a great resource, both for locals and for people from outside the neighborhood interested in what Beaumont Village has to offer.

You will soon see banners identifying Beaumont Village as the place to shop, eat, and play along Fremont between 40th and 51st. This was done, in part, with grant money from the city through the Alliance of Portland Neighborhood Business Associations (APNBA). Special thanks also go to Sonia Jones of Sonia Jones Design and Lori von der Heydt of the Beaumont Health Care Clinic. Sonia created our new logos and designed the banners. Lori shepherded the banners through the permitting process (and it was quite a process).

The BBA meets on the first Tuesday of every month at 8:00 am at the Alameda Brew Pub. Meetings are open to the public. If you would like to present information to the Association, please call my office at (503) 493-1390, and I will add you to the agenda for an upcoming meeting. The information should be relevant to business along Fremont.

Ernest Hemingway wrote for BWNA?

By Helen Koba

Not really, but YOU can! Writing for the Beaumont Wilshire Newsletter is a great way to hone your skills as you work on that next great American novel or prepare the piece that will win the Pulitzer Prize. Or it's just a good way to get to know your neighbors and neighborhood. We welcome articles about events, people, and businesses in and around the BW neighborhood.

Deadlines for each issue are listed in the calendar section of the newsletter or on the neighborhood web page at: www.bwna.org /newsletter.html. The best way to submit your article is via email to the editors at mc-hk@comcast.net. Limit is 350 words per article. Don't be shy.

Leaf & Bean

Sara of Leaf & Bean

Oregon-grown chicken breast, dressed with lemon, olive oil, garlic, herbs and capers, feta cheese, marinated red onion, roasted red pepper, cucumber, lettuce and an olive-caper mayo. It makes your mouth water just reading the ingredients.

The Leaf and Bean Café is like a second home for Sara. She fondly remembers how John Zweben, owner of the former L'etoile French restaurant, brought a bottle of sparkling cider to celebrate her first night of business on April 1, 1994. Fife chef, Marco Shaw, was a regular customer during the construction of his restaurant and loves the 'La Cubana,' house-smoked turkey, ham, onions and provolone. The green salads with homemade dressings, featuring cheeses and nuts are a favorite of many customers.

Fremont Street has been an excellent place for Sara's business and it just keeps getting better. Jim and Patty's coffee shop opened recently on Fremont at 51st, and the whole Fremont restaurant district has attracted local and citywide attention.

Sara takes pride in the fact that Leaf and Bean Café specializes in 'made from scratch' dishes using fresh ingredients. She offers vegetarian options, but also serves chicken, turkey and ham. There is a fine selection of beer and wine and new surprises are in store for the dinner menu in April. The café is open for lunch and dinner during the weekdays, and for brunch, lunch and dinner on the weekends. In addition, most items on the menu are available to go.

This brings me back to that spring evening. It would be so fine to hurry home, meet up with your best buddy, head on over to the Leaf and Bean Café for a couple of Paso Doble sandwiches to go, bike up to Mt Tabor and watch the sun set. Make it a point to visit Sara at the Leaf and Bean Café, 4936 NE Fremont, (503) 281-1090. Congratulations Leaf and Bean for 10 successful years!

NE 42nd Avenue Target Area Project

Monthly meeting every 4th Tuesday at 7pm — St. Charles, 5310 NE 42nd

By Sandra Lefrancois

The 42nd target area project is a geographically focused community-based initiative. The Target Area is located along NE 42nd Avenue from NE Prescott to NE Holman intersecting Cully, Concordia, and Beaumont-Wilshire neighborhoods. The main goals established by community members are to improve and promote a viable neighborhood-serving business district, to provide opportunities to build community, and to retain and promote diversity and unity.

A community steering committee has developed action plan strategies to accomplish these goals. Community members successfully orchestrated several neighborhood improvement projects including: a 42nd Avenue Market Study, the new 42nd Avenue Business Association, a business directory, street trees, planters/benches, 24 street banners in partnership with local students, involvement in the Whitaker-Adams redevelopment process, advocacy for community services, Spring clean-ups, the Youth Photo Project, the 42nd Fiesta event, the Latino Youth Network, quarterly bilingual newsletter, PDC Storefront Improvement outreach and more. The projects are based on community collaboration in partnership with local groups. 42nd Target Area goals for 2004 are:

1. Continue NE 42nd Ave. Business Association activities; 42nd market study strategies.

2. Support the Whitaker-Adams School site redevelopment, define our role in the process

3. Support the development of social services in the 42nd Ave. community; connect with School-Aged Policy Framework implementation, local schools, Schools Uniting Neighborhoods (SUN) programs

4. Promote youth development activities, specifically
   - Latino Youth Network, connection to other youth groups
   - August event (42nd Ave. Celebration)

5. Provide staff for technical assistance, organizing materials, progress meetings and other resources to support community organizing efforts

If you are interested in getting involved contact Sandra Lefrancois, 42nd Target Area & Neighborhood Involvement Specialist, Central Northeast Neighbors (503) 823-2780, cnnoutreach@teleport.com
