Beaumont Wilshire NET honored

By Shelly M. Davidson
BWNET Member

On April 29, members of the Beaumont Wilshire Neighborhood Emergency Team (BWNET) received three awards from the Portland Office of Emergency Management during their "Ready. Safe. Go." training conference and recognition event.

The Star Volunteer Awards reflect exceptional initiative, enterprise, creativity, dedication, and an extraordinary attitude in service to the Portland community. Our neighborhood is fortunate to have two NET members individually recognized with this prestigious award: Liz Johnston and Erika Wolfe Burr.

Liz completed her NET training in 2001 and has been our team leader since 2002. She's served on several committees, assisting in everything from budget recommendations for the Portland Office of Emergency Management and Portland Fire & Rescue to giving City Council testimony regarding the effectiveness of the NET program.

All Your Protection Under One Roof

By Barbara Warren-Sams

Steven Burgus, Alicia Hinojosa and Mikel McClain

Three years ago when Steve Burgus was seeking an insurance company to represent, he chose American Family Insurance. "I liked their customer service emphasis and model of providing comprehensive services," says Burgus, who has spent fifteen years in the insurance field.

Although American Family, a Fortune 300 company, is one of the four largest insurance companies in the country, it provides insurance to families through independently owned neighborhood insurance centers. The Steven Burgus Agency employs three licensed agents, including Burgus, who sell auto, home, renter's, business liability, disability, and life insurance. As a registered representative with American Family Securities LLC, Burgus also sells annuities and variable life insurance products. The American Family motto is "All Your Protection Under One Roof."

"At our agency relationships with clients are everything," says Burgus. "We don't have an 800 number and guarantee a

Hello neighbors

I'M EXCITED TO BE your new neighborhood association president. Heidi Blischke served on the board for the past six years and I want to thank her for the great work she has done on everyone's behalf! I moved to this community a year ago and became the coordinator for our tree planting. For the past eleven years I have been an environmental and neighborhood activist in Seattle and Portland working on population growth; turning Mount Hood into a national park; airport noise; Freecycle and protecting forests and other species. By day I develop software, practice yoga and study Pronoia, a fantastic new book by Rob Brezsny.

I love building community and look forward to sharing the ideas I have for Beaumont Wilshire. I envision a place where people take the time to get to know one another, traffic is calmed, and we feel comfortable biking and walking to great local cafes, restaurants and services. I want to live on tree-lined streets full of birds singing surrounded by organic flower and vegetable gardens. Think I'm dreaming? Look around!

Contact me with any visions you want to manifest and I hope you will join our neighborhood e-mail discussion list at bwna.org (see URL inset left) to keep current on what's up in the hood!

Albert Kaufman,
BWNA President

Beaumont students help out

By Brit Cornwell
Beaumont Middle School Student

BEAUMONT'S 7TH GRADERS have elective classes for sixth period. They are: Spanish, computers, and Community service class. Everyone is required to do them all, but we do them at different times over the course of the year.

The Community Service Class is about helping our neighborhood. Our teacher, Ms. Thoma helps us plan and arrange field trips. On the first day, we decide what field trips to go on, and how to help around our school. As a class, the kids do most of the planning and helping, except for arranging field trips, which Ms. Thoma does.

Some of the things we plan to do are: go to a homeless shelter to help serve food, raise money for our school, go to an animal shelter to help, and mentor kindergarteners.

After spring break, we went to Sabin School to read to the kindergarteners. The people who get the benefit of our work are homeless people, neighbors, and schoolmates. The kids that go to our school get the benefit of better gardens, not as much trash, and they learn about media news in our newspaper called the Beaumontian. It is called the Beaumontian because we combined Beaumont and the Oregonian.

Our class wants our neighborhood to know that we are helping the Beaumont area.

Burgus and fellow agents write few insurance policies outside the area. "We specialize in insuring people in Beaumont Wilshire and 75 percent of our clients come from this area." he says. His agency tailors policies to meet the specific needs of BW unlike agencies outside the area that are less familiar with the neighborhood and may characterize it as an area of older, rundown homes. "We know that isn't true, so we are able to provide home owners with more coverage at better rates."

Hollywood sewer repair and traffic on Fremont

By David Whitaker
Transportation & Land Use Chair

WORK OFFICIALLY started on the Hollywood Sewer repair on April 17th. As many of you have noticed, a part of the repair work has created the need to reduce traffic to one lane each direction between NE 41st and NE 45th Ave. Reduced traffic lanes on Sandy are scheduled to continue all hours and all days through September between 37th and 47th Avenues, although work locations will change. You will probably notice more traffic on Fremont St. during this construction period, as commuters look for other, more expedient ways to get to and from work. The potential increase in traffic will occur at the same time as four new crosswalks across Fremont St. are added and the speed limit on Fremont St. is lowered to 20 mph between 42nd and 52nd. So, we could have some confused drivers out there. Please be extra careful crossing Fremont St. and remember to look both ways, even if you have the right of way while crossing in one of the new crosswalks. Drivers are not used to the crosswalks and may not always yield the right of way to the pedestrian.

Changes are on the way

IN MAY I noticed folks from PDOT were out painting the locations for the crosswalks across Fremont St. and striping for angled parking. Perhaps by June we should have brand new crosswalks at NE 50th, NE 48th, NE 46th and NE 44th. Striping for angled parking will be installed along NE 43rd, 44th, 45th, and 47th, and the new 20 mph speed limit signs should be posted along Fremont St at 52nd and 42nd. These improvements to our business district were brought to the district through the hard work of the folks on the BWNA transportation and land use committee and others. If you would like to get involved with the transportation and land use committee please join us at Fremont Coffee on the third Monday of each month. We meet from 7:30 to 8:30 pm to discuss important issues that affect the quality of life in our neighborhood.

Summer safety tips

By Preston Wong

WARMER WEATHER, longer days and summer vacations are here. More of us will be out on the streets and in the parks. Being the victim of a crime can put a damper on your entire summer. Here are some tips for kids and adults on keeping safe:

1. Always let someone know where you are going, who you are with, and time of return.
2. Go places with friends and family. You are usually safer in a group.
3. Never go with someone you do not know, no matter what they say.
4. Be careful when approached by or talking to strangers; stay at least two arms length or two steps away.
5. Carry your cell phone with you so you can call for help quickly
6. Younger children should know their full name, parent's names, and their address (a phone number is also helpful, but may be more information than a young child can handle). Carrying identification is helpful but should not be a substitute for knowing. Adults should ALWAYS carry identification.
7. If you are not in "your neighborhood" always know your street location such as NE Fremont and 47th.
8. If on a bicycle, always lock it and record and keep in a safe place the brand name and serial number of your bicycle. Also engrave you driver's license number in several places on your bicycle.

BW writer publishes two books

By Robin Kerr

Book 1 and 2 of The Short Division of the World Secret Service series

I AM A happily ensconced resident of the Beaumont Wilshire neighborhood (about thirteen years now on NE 39th Ave), and am delighted to announce that in April 2006, the first two books in my young adult series called The Short Division of the World Secret Service–Case One: Bobblings, and Case Two: Stolen Children were printed.

The series follows thirteen year olds, Lucie and her best friend Rodney, who work for Lucie's father's company in the Short Division of the World Secret Service. Wit, intelligence, and inventiveness are required to solve each case and dispatch the villains.

I was born and bred in New Zealand, a country known for its strong literary heritage, penchant for travel, and off beat sense of humor - which probably influenced the tone and content of the stories. Each book features code breaking, sports (often extreme), travel and a healthy dose of fun.

The books are available at many local bookstores including –A Children's Place bookstore at 4807 NE Fremont, and Broadway Books at 1714 NE Broadway.

For more information contact: Robin@illustriousPlay.com or go to: www.IllustriousPlay.com.
