Business Focus

Tuk Tuk

By Helen Koba

THIS SPRING, Tuk Tuk Thai Restaurant celebrated its third anniversary in the Beaumont Wilshire neighborhood. Tony Babpha moved his downtown restaurant, Bai Tong Express, to 4239 NE Fremont where Kim Hong had been located and renamed it Tuk Tuk.

Tony is originally from Laos and lived in Thailand before coming to Portland in 1991. He also studied in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia in the 1980's. He learned Thai cooking from his sister who owned a restaurant in Bangkok where Tony worked for a few years.

Tuk Tuk offers an extensive menu of regular Thai dishes such as Pad Thai, fried rice dishes and curries. The restaurant also offers specialties such as Pad Thai Curry, Pumpkin Curry, Sizzling Fried String Beans, Ginger Halibut, Sweet Sticky Rice with Mango and Pla Tod Rad Prik – a whole fish fried and topped with garlic and chili sauce. True to his roots, Tony also offers a green house salad Lao style, and a green papaya salad, Lao or Thai style. All dishes are prepared with fresh ingredients with no preservatives or MSG.

Tony Babpha and son Newton of Tuk Tuk

Neighborhood folks make up most of Tuk Tuk's clientele, but its reputation has spread and draws regulars from Beaverton, Gresham and even Hood River. Tony and his wife welcomed son Newton to their family recently.

Tuk Tuk is located at 4239 NE Fremont 503-282-0456. It is open seven days a week from 11:30 am to 9:30 or 10:00pm. Check it out soon.

Friends of Trees

By Colin Rowan

THE BEAUMONT Wilshire Neighborhood Association and Friends of Trees are sponsoring a tree planting on Feb. 17, 2007. We are seeking homeowners who want trees and volunteers to help organize and plant. If you are interested in participating and haven't submitted an interest form, please complete and send the form in this newsletter. All interest forms are due by Nov. 1, 2006. (Form on page 4)

Those who complete an interest form will receive a free inspection from the City's Urban Forester who will advise on tree types and placement. Planting fees are $75 per tree, both street and yard trees will be available. The fee covers the cost of the tree, hole digging, assistance on planting day, stakes, twine, and follow-up monitoring. A slide show of available trees will be held in January – information to follow.

If you are able to help with outreach or on the day of the planting, please contact Colin Rowan at cmrowan1@yahoo.com or mail the form to Colin at 3305 NE 46th Ave. Portland OR 97213. We hope everyone gets involved in this year's tree planting – whether you are receiving a tree or not. This is a great a way to help improve your neighborhood; hopefully you'll jump in and help out!

For more information about Friends of Trees and the great work they are doing to increase the urban canopy in Portland, visit their website at www.friendsoftrees.org. See you on Feb. 17, 2007!

Meeting at Beaumont Middle School

Monday, Oct 9th, 7:30 PM
Beaumont Middle School
NE 42nd & Fremont

THE FIRST GENERAL neighborhood meeting of the fall season will take place Oct 9th at 7:30PM at Beaumont Middle School located at the corner of 42nd and Fremont. The board has decided to move its neighborhood meetings to this more centrally located spot, with plenty of on site parking. The focus of the meeting will be 'Schools'.

Speakers will include Sherrie Knutsen, Principal of Beaumont Middle School. She will share with us how the school is doing and what is planned for this school year.

Also speaking will be Debbie Gordon of 'Portland for Schools'. She will speak on the Portland Public Schools Local Option Property Tax Levy, which will be on the November ballot.

BWNA board member Colin Rowan will give a short presentation on the spring tree planting and how you can get involved.

Refreshments will be served. Anyone who lives, works or owns a business in the Beaumont Wilshire area is a member of the Beaumont Wilshire Neighborhood and everyone is cordially invited to this fall kick off meeting.

Happy autumn

IT'S 7PM on a warm and sunny Tuesday summer/autumn evening and I'm on the front porch listening to music on the laptop and watching sunflowers wave in the wind. I talk to neighbors who walk by on Klickitat: with their dogs, bikes, kids and cell-phones. When we connect I tell them about our neighborhood association – an upcoming meeting, community picnic or we talk about trees, gardens or the beginning of the school year. My father is an extrovert and always speaks to strangers, and this trait is one I'm happy to have inherited. Birds are winging their way from Northeast to Southwest, black crows, as the leaves from the large maple out front drift to the ground. Autumn approaches.

It's election season and I'm excited about the change I feel in the air. With a BA and MA in political science I have always enjoyed the political process. From my days as student council president in high school to living on a kibbutz for a year and lots of time spent on community councils and planning boards, I love fostering leadership and encouraging people to take initiative and make our world a better place. I believe it increases our joy and happiness when we're involved in our community – I think it's even been shown that those who participate in their communities live longer and have better love lives.

And, as Cher once said "life is not a dress rehearsal". We get one chance to live big, fantastic lives, why not choose to live large right now? In that vein I'm reminded of one of the suggestions we received to our query of what we should do with our neighborhood association's treasury. Someone wrote in suggesting we have a water fountain on Fremont. It sounds like a radical idea, and I don't know of another neighborhood outside of downtown that has one – so, perhaps it's time for us to take the leap! The idea makes me laugh and I think it would be fantastic and be one more attraction to our business district/social center. We now have people on our board working on intersection repair projects, improving Wilshire Park and continuing to make our neighborhood incredible. I want to encourage you to dream along with us and jump in with any ideas or projects you have that will bring this community together to get to know one another better and increase our sense of place. What's your vision for Beaumont-Wilshire?

Have a great autumn and I hope to meet you at the next general meeting or another community event.

Peace,
Albert Kaufman

Bagel Land

By Barbara Warren-Sams

Brenden, baker, and Ben, co-owner of Bagel Land

IF YOU LOVE BAGELS, you'll love Bagel Land, where you can choose from more than 20 varieties of bagels. Besides poppy seed, whole wheat, or just plain "plain." you can tempt your palate with kalmata olive and rosemary, pumpkin raisin, or even pesto. "The number one seller is the Tillamook cheese bagel, with plenty of grated cheese inside and out," says co-owner Jackie Ferere.

What is special about Bagel Land bagels? They are made from scratch on the premises. "There are no premixes or frozen dough shipped from headquarters," says Jackie. They also water-boil the bagels, producing a traditional bagel with a hard, crusty outside and a dense, chewy center. They also don't use oils, preservatives, sugars, or artificial colors or flavors.

Jackie and her husband Ben bought Bagel Land in 1992. Jackie, however, was not new to the business. She began working there as a night baker, 11 p.m. until 6 a.m., in 1982 while attending Portland State. After college Jackie served in the Peace Corps in Haiti, where she and Ben met.

Jackie returned home in 1989 and became manager at Bagel Land. Ben came for a visit on a three-month visa, but stayed to marry, raise two children, Sophia, ten, and Xander, eight, and become a business owner. "When we bought Bagel Land, we thought we'd do it for a few years, but here we are seventeen years later, still going strong."

Originally, Bagel Land's sales were mostly wholesale. Today, sales are mostly retail. "Wholesale isn't who we are," says Jackie. "We like people to know that what drives us is being part of the community. We have watched kids grow up here and now we're hiring some of them. That is a wonderful benefit of owning a mom and pop store."

Bagel Land, located at 4118 NE Fremont, is open seven days a week: 6 a.m.-3 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 7a.m.-3 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays. You can reach Jackie or Ben at 503.249.2848.

The changes are here – please be careful

By David Whitaker

We have brand new crosswalks at NE 50th, NE 48th, NE 46th and NE 44th; angled parking along NE 43rd, 44th, 45th, and 47th, and a reduced speed limit from 30 mph to 20 mph. These improvements to our business district were brought to the district through the hard work of the folks on the BWNA transportation and land use committee, the Beaumont Business Association, Debbie Bischoff from the Portland Planning Bureau and all the wonderful folks at PDOT.

I encourage all of you to obey the speed limit and drive 20 mph through the business district. I know it's hard, but you can do it. Also, please stop for pedestrians when they are trying to cross the street. As for you pedestrians, you are much smaller than those cars, so look twice and be cautious before you cross the street. It doesn't matter who is at fault, if a car hits you, you will definitely get the worse end of the deal.

Isn't it great to live in such a wonderful neighborhood!

Watch artists at work

By Judee Moonbeam

OCTOBER 14 and 15, artist studios west of the Willamette will open their doors. October 21 and 20, studios east of the Willamette welcome you in to their spaces.

Portland Open Studios 2006 is an opportunity to see how art is made. Ninety five artists in their own workplaces will share with you some of the secrets of their crafts. If you were ever curious to know what creative spaces look like or wanted to learn more about mediums such as glass, pottery, metal sculpture, painting and prints--here's your chance!

Moonbeam studio

In planning for the event, I've had the opportunity to meet some of these gifted artists and look forward to taking a peek into their studios, perhaps purchasing some art directly from the creator--a great experience! Some NE artists include: Lucia Johnson, Samir Sankari, Kelly Neidig, Rachelle Clark, Lauren Mantecon, Hillary Barsky, Jennifer Horning, Briana Linden and Judee Moonbeam

The official Portland Open Studios 2006 Tour Guide is available at Art Media Stores, New Seasons Market, Powell's Books and other outlets listed on www.portlandopenstudios.com. It includes 2 adult tickets for all days (kids are free), a "Go by Bike" raffle ticket, a 2007 calendar, map to the studios and a complete artist directory guide, all for $15. Guides are available especially for Beaumont Wilshire neighborhood residents. For free delivery with purchase of your guide within the bounds of BWNA call: 503.285.1875

Wading pool at picnic a huge success

By Helen Koba

Family at picnic

According to comments from some of those who attended the annual national night picnic on August 1, this year was a huge success. Over 250 people showed up to enjoy great food brought by neighbors, and burgers and dogs prepared by board members and others. For the first time in years, the wading pool was filled with water for kids and adults to enjoy. Thanks to the hard work of board members, to Wilshire United Methodist Church for their tables and chairs, and to those who hauled them. Also a big thanks to the following neighborhood businesses for donating food and prizes. Photos from the picnic can be seen at http://bwna.org/photos.html
